

Daniel de la Rosa
NCAC Delegate, Area 1 (San Simeon)

Daniel was born in San Francisco, raised in Southern California and semi-retired to San Simeon in 2011. After returning from a three-year U.S. Air Force tour in Asia he began his education at California universities. This began with a B.S. in Public Health and a M.S. in Health Science earned at California State University, Los Angeles. He then graduated from the school of Physical Therapy at the University of California, San Francisco. His 40-year healthcare career was divided between Physical Rehabilitation and Occupational Health and Safety.

- Viet Nam Era veteran; U.S. Air Force

- B.S. Public Health, Concentration Environmental Health Science, CSULA
- M.S. Health Science, Concentration Occupational Safety, CSULA
- P.T. Physical Therapy, U.C.S.F.

- Retired L.A. County
  - Registered Environmental Health Specialist
  - Safety Inspector (Ergonomic Section)