Redistricting Overview

What We Will Cover:

- What is Redistricting?
- Governing Law
- County Process
- Proposed Timeline/Hearings Schedule
- Public Input Opportunities

What is Redistricting?

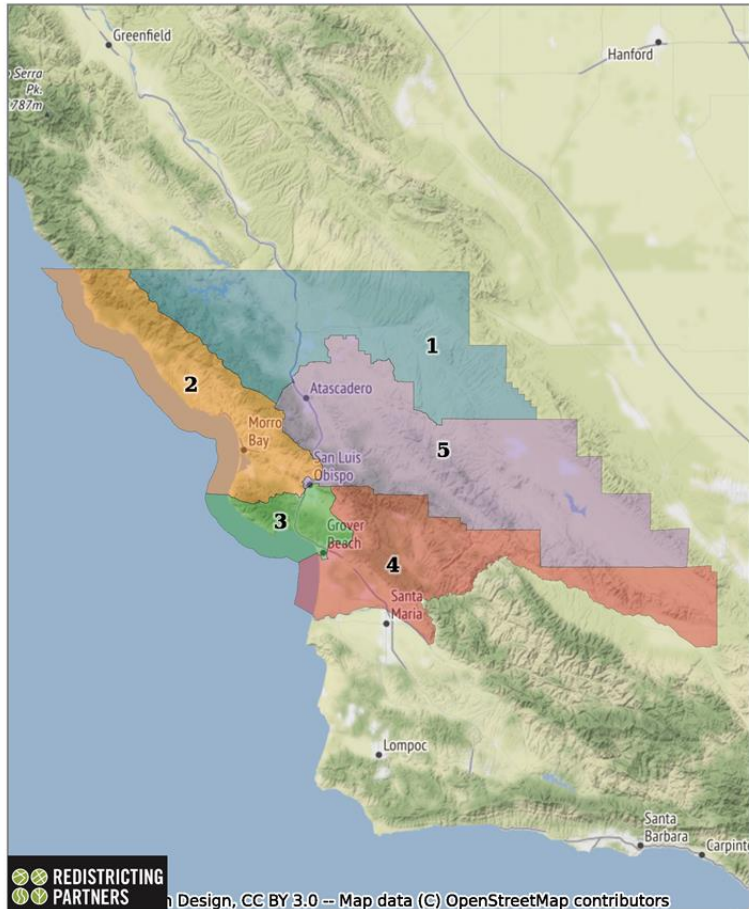

- Equalizing population among districts to ensure:
 1. Equal Representation (14th Amendment) – how effective any resident can be at advocating for themselves
 2. One Person-One Vote – equal ability to elect a candidate of choice
- Population equality based on total population (less non-resident state incarcerated population)
 - Total deviation <10%

Governing Law

- Must comply with US Constitution, CA Constitution and Voting Rights Act
 - Prohibits diluting racial and language minority voting rights by denying them an equal opportunity to nominate and elect candidates of their choice

Voting Rights Act: Cracking

Voting Rights Act: Packing

- Restricts the use of race as the “predominant” criterion in drawing districts

Governing Law – CA Fair Maps Act

Must consider (in order of priority):

- Geographically contiguous
- Maintain geographic integrity of neighborhoods/communities of interest
- Minimize division of cities or census designated places
- Boundaries must be easily identifiable and, if possible, bound by natural/artificial barriers
- No favoring/discriminating against any political party

Governing Law – CA Fair Maps Act

Public Outreach Requirements:

- 1 hearing/public workshop before draft maps are drawn
- 2 hearings/public workshops before adoption of final maps
- 1 hearing/public workshop must be held on a weekend or after 6pm on a weekday

* Must take steps to encourage residents, including underrepresented and non-English speaking communities to participate
